WET OPENING AT PIMLICO

ADVERSE WEATHER KEEPS CROWD AWAY AND SPOILS PLANS OF SOCIETY SET.

Tartar, Held at Short Odds, Is Beaten by Acton in Opening Dash-Ten Point Again a Winner-Old Telifare Drops Dead After Steeplechase Race.

Baltimore. Md., November 1.—The Maryland Jockey Club's fall meeting began today at Pimlico under adverse conditions. Rain came down in torrents this morning and continued until after the running of the opening race. This naturally had a tendency to keep away all but the regulars and instead of what would otherwise have been a brillination of the opening race. This naturally had a tendency to keep away all but the regulars and instead of what would otherwise have been a brillination of the opening, the races were witnessed by a slim crowd. The track was a sea of mud and slush and horses that fancked such going enjoyed a big advantage. Form was well observed and the afternoon's results showed four favorites and a well-backed second choice first at the finish.

The afternoon's feature was the Inaugural Steeple-chase, over the two-mile course. There were ten starters and all but Dr. Heard finished the course without mishap. Directly after the tinish, however. old Tellfare droped dead. Today's race marked Tellfare's first start in three years. The old borse was a keen factor for a mile and a half, then began to weaken and the finish found him in fifth position. The winner turned up in Young Morpheus, which led from the start and was never leaded. Bello moved up with a rush in going to the twelfth fence, but the leader had something in reserve and easily stood off his opposition.

Ten Point, the Jack Point colt uncovered by A. L. Aste at Laurel, scored another victory this afternoon, when he beat a fair band of two-year-olds in the second race. It required little better than an exercise gallop for Ten Point to win and at the finish he had a three-lengths margin.

Tartar was the biggest disappointment of the follows slowly and was unable to get to Acton, which beat his opponents away from the barrier and made a runaway affair of the race.

Algernon Daingerfield, secretary of the Jocker had a runaway affair of the race.

Algernon beingerfield, secretary of the Jocker had been engaged by Francis J. Pons as one of the of stable and ave of the gentlemen for whom he is training have agreed to form a pool and engage. Butwell. Eddie Tribe, who did the starting at the Van-couver, Victoria and Denver tracks during the sum-mer and fall, arrived from Denver yesterday and acted as one of A. B. Dade's assistants this after-

Joekey McTaggart was taken sick while at the aths this morning and cancelled his engagements his afternoon.

The stables of W. B. Carson and Hugh E. springer will be shipped from Laurel direct to harez. Arrangements have been made for them to eave early next week.

The two-year-old Early Light was claimed by R. 4. Darrah at Laurel yesterday. The colt cost his new owner $500.

LATONIA TRACK AGAIN WET

BLEAK WEATHER FOLLOWS DOWNPOUR AND MUD RUNNERS GET ANOTHER CHANCE.

Colonel Holloway Scores in Calef Race of Ordinary Card-Feather Duster Wins at First Asking for R. F. Carman and Is Bid Up.

Cincinnati, O., November 1.—Bleak, cold weather, following a hard raim which left the track in bad condition, coupled with an ordinary card, contributed to decrease the Latonia attendance this afternoon. The betting also fell off, the total amount wagered being the smallest of the meeting. Favorites and outsiders divided the card. The feature race went to the Beverwyck Stable's Colonel Holloway, which was left here after the running of the Kentucky Endurance Stakes, in which he finished second to Sotemia, with the idea he would be a starter in the Latonia Endurance Handleap to be run on the closing day. Colonel Holloway had conditions exactly to his liking and won with great ease. Helene finished second, and Mud Sill was third. Swannanoa ran promisingly during the early part of the race, but retired after going three-quarters, and Mockler, her closest follower to the stretch. Suffered considerable interference as a result of Obert's rough tactics. The judges suspended Obert for the rest of the meeting.

Feather Duster, which R. F. Carman claimed recently, scored for the rest of the meeting.

Feather Duster, which R. F. Carman claimed recently, scored for his new owner and promptly invited a run-up, William Walker bidding him up from $500 to $1.105, and falling to get him. Feather Duster was well backed by the public.

Another run-up came after the finish of the third race, in which a poor band started, with Toison d'Or rulling a big favorite. He finished last after trailing all the way. Portarlington won the race, with Scarlet Pimpernel, another long shot, in second place. The latter's owner, A. Boyd, bid Portarlington up $200 over his entered price of $400, and $300 to $1.00 in the long price against the colt was due to M. Nathan's presence in the saddle. The youngster persevered with the colt after he spiperared a forform hope and was highly commended for it. Odom had several offers after the race for the transfer of the lockey's contract.

DECISION FAVORABLE TO ED ALVEY.

Frankfort, Ky., November 1.—Ed Alvey, of Louisville, a former poolroom operator, today won a case when the Court of Appeals decided that John Nicholson was not entitled to recover $12,000 alleged to have been lost by him in bets on race horses to Harry Laffon, agent of Alvey. The Western Union Telegraph Company, the Cumberland Telephone Comyany and the Louisville Home Telephone Comyany and the Louisville Home Telephone Company were also made defendants on the grounds that they assisted in conveying the information to Alvey in deciding the bet.

The attempt to recover the $12,000 was made under Section 1856 of the Kentucky Statutes, which provides that if $5 or more is lost in a wager or bet the loser may file suit within twenty-four hours to recover the money. The Appellate Court adopted the opinion of the lower court, which said that the court cannot surmise or coujecture, much less arbitrarily determine the amount of money to be recovered in a case like this, but must be guided by the evidence. The court came to the conclusion that there was no evidence introduced by Nicholson to prove that he had lost $12,000 to Laffon or Alvey between June, 1908, and September, 1909. The greatest amount the court says Nicholson proved that he lost was $700, which should have been recovered under another statute.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

Wm. C., Alleghany, Pa. Hazel C. was 7 to 10 to show October 29.

M. F., Chicago. Since October 31, 1911, to October 31, 1912, Worth has started in sixteen races. In the same space of time Effendi has started forty-three times.

A. C. H.. Chicago. Unless it is stipulated that an "if coming" bet is to be made from winnings only of a previous bet, it would be made from any money in the layers hands to the credit of the backer, if sufficient in amount.

Backer, If sumcent in amount.

R. E. Stevenson, Mountain Home, Idaho, W. H. Carey was foaled in 1908, a chestnut horse, by Ed. Farrell—Bettie Bramble, and raced last December 8, 1908, at Los Angeles, Cal., in R. F. Carman's colors, We do not know his special markings or whereabouts.

RACING TO RESUME AT MINERAL SPRINGS.

Another term of racing over the new track of the Mineral Springs Jockey Club is to begin this afternoon and a card of five races is presented as the attraction. Tairty-nine horses have been entered, more than were generally supposed to have been kept at the track. A special train will leave the LaSalle street depot at 1:08 p. m. over the Lake Shore road to convey spectators to the track from Chicago, and will bring them back after the races are over.

It is understood that in case of no farther military interference an effort will be made to carry on racing to the end of the period allowed by the Seller law. What the attitude of the governor may be in the matter remains to be disclosed.

Geldings allowed three pounds.

Jockey Goose will ride Countless in the Latonia Endurance Handicap.

Great Britain will race no more this season.
Trainer John Walters will point him for the Kentucky Derby next spring.

The steeplechaser Wickson has been taken back to Montreal by trainer Alan Bulcroft, where he will gainto winter quarters for next season.

The winners on Cesarewitch day showed how in-ernational racing is in England. A Frenchman rode-the winner of the big race, while two winners were ored in the United States and another in France.

ternational racing is in England. A Frenchman rode the winner of the big race, while two winners were bred in the United States and another in France.

William Walker will ship his horses from Latonia to Jamestown and then to Canada to winter, while he himself will go to Juarez. He has three yearings by Earl Rogers which will be eligible to races for Canadian-bred horses.

King George's latest victory was quite appropriately in the Royal Stakes at Newmarket. The race is a mile and a quarter for three-year-olds, and the King's winner was Pintadeau, ridden by Herbert Jones. The next two horses behind him, Serenadrand White Star, were ridden by the crack Jockeys, Maher and Wootton.

Cliff Hammon will ship E, R. Bradley's horses to Idle Hour Farm at the conclusion of the Latonia meeting and turn them out. Early in February he will ship a string of twenty-five or thirty horses to Churchill Downs to be prepared for spring racing, in the lot will be Brookfield, which has not raced since last spring, having had a bad quarter crack, and the Rock Sand and Celt yearlings purchased at the Lexington sale.

August Belmont was asked a day or two ago if he regretted the enforced expatriation of Rock Sand, in reply he said he did, but that there was no fluture in America at present for a stallion of his value; hence he could not keep him here. Nothing would have induced him to part with the horse had racing been permitted here, he said. The United States is not even on a par with the smallest European countries, he said, in its treatment of the thoroughbred. Racing associations here are not financially able to offer prizes that would furnish conclusive guides for breeding great horses, so they are all leaving America, he declared.

W. H. Fizer has added the three-year-old, Helen Pink, which has never raced, is by Pink Coat-Readina. The Orlando youngster is out of Autumn Leaves, winner of the Debutante Stakes, while the has in his string and he will have a full cared for the coming winter meeting.  SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1912. Winner—Blk, c, by Fatherless—Lizzie H. (trained by G. M. Odom).

Went to post at 2:01. At post 2 minutes. Start bad and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. FIEL, from a slow beginning, moved up with an electric rush in the stretch and was going fast and drawing clear at the end. HASSON had the best of the start, ran well and finished gamely. DR. JACK-SON was well up for the entire race. KID NELSON closed a gap and finished close up. VIGILANT closed a big gap. LOCKLAND showed the most early speed, but quit after setting the pace to the homestretch. Scratched—6280 The Cinder, 108. Overweights—King Box, 1 pound; Lockland, 5; Gordon Russell, 4; Vigilant, 2.
